

After watching the video, say if the following statements are true or false:

1) Academic Writing communicates ideas, information and research to anyone who wants to read it.

2) It is only written by Specialists and experts.

3) The standards and requirements for AW are different for students and for experts.

4) The differences between students AW and experts AW are the content, audience and purpose.

5) The experts write for Academic publications in Academic journals or books.

6) The AW students' audience are professors and other students.

7) Narrative texts can be labelled as part of the AW genre.

8) AW should have a clear structure which depends on the genre.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9) The writing piece has to be coherent and cohesive.

10) It doesn't require planning before writing to have a clear structure.

11) AW is a simple description which doesn't need a critical analysis.

12) AW is supported by evidence, that is, facts, reasons, examples, statistics and citations.

13) In order to allow the reader follow the ideas and reasoning, AW should use clear and precise language.

14) There is no reason to use specifically and technical vocabulary when writing academically.

15) AW includes the writer's point of view and opinions.

16) AW includes both, formal and informal structures and vocabulary.

17) There is no specific vocabulary to be used when writing academically.

LIVEWORKSHEETS