3

2. The symbols window will appear. Select a symbol from the list (4).

4

3. Click the OK button.
4. Repeat steps 1- 3 to change the symbol for the checked/unchecked box.
5. When finished, click the OK button on the Check Box Properties window.

Lock and Restrict your Form

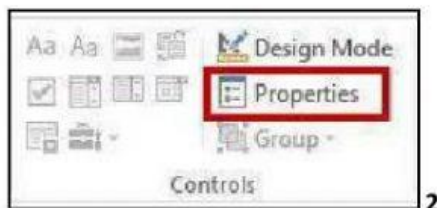

Once you have prepared your form for data entry, it is good idea to lock the field from deletion so users won't accidentally remove key fields. In addition, you can restrict users to using the content controls available to fill in the form.

Before locking your form to restrict editing, you will need to lock all the content controls in your form from deletion :

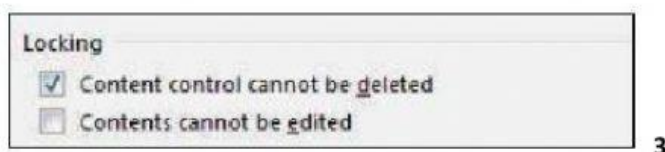

1. Click the Content Control you wish to alter properties for.
2. Click the Developer tab.(1)

3. Click on Properties in the Controls group (2).

4. The properties window will appear. Under Locking, check the Content control cannot be deleted box. (3)

5. Click the OK button.
 6. Repeat steps 1 - 5 for the rest of the content controls in your form.
- Once all your content controls have been locked against deletion.
7. Click on the Developer tab. (4)

4

8. In the Protect grouping ,click on Restrict Editing. (5)

5

9. The Restrict Editing side menu will appear to the right of your document. Under editing restrictions, click the box that says, Allow only this type of editing in the document (6).

6

10. Under Editing restrictions, select Filling in forms from the drop-down list. (7)

7

11. Under Start enforcement, click on Yes, Start Enforcing Protection (8).

8

12. The Start Enforcing Protection window will appear. From here, you can choose to create a password to unlock editing of the form for an extra layer of control. If no password is needed leave the fields blank (9)

9

Make note of your password if forgotten, there is no way to retrieve it and thus remove protection from the document.

13. When finished, click the OK button.
