Simple Present and Present Continuous

Present simple and present continuous

They usually wear blue uniforms.
They're wearing green today.

We usually have pasta.
But we're having pizza now.

Use the present simple for things you do many times or all the time.
Use the present continuous for things you are doing at the time of speaking.

We usually eat at Ken's Café, but today we're trying The Pizza Place. It's great!

Read and choose the correct option

1. Kate drink / is drinking a glass of water now.

2. The family usually sitting /sits by the window, but today they sit /are sitting by the door.

3. Jack never have / has / having soup for lunch.

4. Larry usually having /has meat and salad, but today he is having / has some pasta.

5. Molly usually have /has /is having lunch at home, but today she has /is having lunch at the café with her friends.

Simple Present and Present Continuous

Look at the table. Write sentences using the Present Simple ("usually") and the Present Continuous ("today")

usually	today
1. the waitress/wear/ a red uniform	she /wear/ a blue uniform
2. Molly/have/some bread	she /have / a bowl of soup
3. Harry/drink/milk	he /drink/orange juice
4. Charlie and Molly/eat/pasta	they/eat/salad
5. we/sit/by the window	we/sit/in the corner
6. Toby/come/with us	he/play/a rugby match at the club
7. Dad/pay/the bill	Mum/pay/the bill
8. we/walk/to the café	we/go/by car

1. The waitress usually wears a red uniform, but today she´s wearing a blue uniform.

2. Molly usually some bread, but today she a bowl of soup.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.