Debra had begun _____ from him. She'd take _____ from _____ and give it to her eldest daughter or to a friend.

She didn't want him to have access to _____ for fear he'd take it. And she didn't want him to know that she was still _____ to her kids.

_____

2. Listen and shadow

_____ In October 2015 she bought a house on North Water Street in Henderson, Nevada. It was an investment and she got to work upgrading it. But more importantly, it was a place John could stay, where he could be away from her children.

_____ One day she went to see Jacquelyn and when she returned, he confronted her about where she'd been. He'd kept a tracker on her car. He told her if he saw Jacquelyn again, he'd throw Jacquelyn in the ocean and make sure she didn't come out.

_____ By December 2015 they'd been married a year. John sat down to type her a two-page letter.

“Will tell women anything to get them to like him.” – Do you remember the quote, who said this and whom?

3. A. Listen to the snippets. What words would you use to describe the letter?

_____

B.Listen to Debra and report back her thoughts and feelings _____

4.Shadow the snippet _____

She knew she would never really be able to trust him. She knew she'd been deceiving herself, that her children had not been her enemies but the ones who'd seen him clearly from the start.

have it out for (one) (redirected from have it out for (someone))

have it out for (one)

To persistently try or desire to criticize, cause harm to, or harass one, especially due to a grudge.

This is the third time in a row my professor has given me an F on my paper. I think he has it out for me or something!

John's had it out for her ever since she forced him to sell his shares in the business.

5. Listen to the snippet _____.

What was Debra giving Jacquelyn money for?

6.Listen to the clip and based either on your knowledge or on the context unjumble the words and type them in next to their definitions:

7.Listen and complete _____

CG:She showed me their exchanges from March 6, 2016.

Jacquelyn: I googled 'pile of shit' and then I sent him an image of pile of shit. And then I was like

“ _____ you wouldn't be _____ . Let's just stop wasting each other's time. Nobody cares about you.”

He was like “ _____ ”.

And I just like “She's right next to me and we're reading your emails together.”

CG: She reads me a couple more from John:

Jacquelyn: “Mommy _____ and that will kill you.”

“Jumping off a tall building would make me smile, _____ .”

I said, “Leave me alone, _____.”

8. Listen once and answer the questions

_____:

How long had Debra and John been married by this point?

What did Debra grab before leaving the apartment?

Listen again and put the lines in order:

- 1   She withdrew 120000 dollars from her bank account hoping he wouldn't notice.
- She gave some money to a friend to hold and some to a daughter.
- Somehow he found it.
- He confronted her at her own Orange County apartment.
- She had 30 000 dollars stashed in the bottom drawer in a closet – banded stacks of hundred-dollar bills.
- She packed her bag and left.
- John told Debra to hit him and promised if she did, he would make sure Debra never got up again.
- That was the end of the end.
- He'd been tracking all Debra's accounts.
- They were getting heated up.
- Debra said she wasn't gonna hit him.

9.Listen and shadow.

- Debra and Jacquelyn drove out to the house in Henderson, Nevada when they knew John was in California.
- They worried he might be monitoring them on security camera he'd installed in the house, so they had no time to lose.
- He could make it there in four hours if he knew.
- Debra put tape over the camera lenses.
- They brought professional movers and they worked quickly packing up Debra's stuff, stacking it into the big truck.
- It was March 29, 2016. Jacquelyn used her iPhone to record the condition of the house as they prepared to leave – just in case John complained that they'd damaged or stolen his things.
- That got really ugly really fast, which I knew it would.

10. Debra found a family-law attorney, Michael R. O'Neil, who filed to annul the marriage in April 2016. Listen once and answer the questions _____:

How long had Michel worked in the law?

Where was his office?

What does O'Neil say about John's goal?

Michael R. O'Neil uses a string of "fish metaphors" in his speech in this snippet.

Try to get the names of the fishes and type them in above the pictures. What other animal(s) does he mention?

11. Listen to the two clips and join the chunks

12. Listen and insert verb forms _____

He _____ her: "You don't know how to live, sex is not love. Get help."

He _____ her as a crook on Yelp.

He had once _____ naked photos out of her and now he sent them to her family.

He _____ her that he knew where she was when she picked up her grandkid.

And he sent a horrible text to one of her nephews whose mother Cindi, Debra's sister, had been shot to death in 1984 by her husband. It was the wound that John _____ in inflaming.

13. Fill the gaps with numbers _____

Debra says he forged her name in $ _____ -worth of checks. And he accused her of assaulting him. "Deb, I saw this coming. It's pathetic that it's come to this point but you leave me with no options after your storm of lies."

She replied, "Storm of lies? Wow, you are the expert in that area."

He had brought only _____ boxes with him to the marriage, mostly old clothes.

Now, he wanted $ _____ a month in spousal support and _____ in attorney's fee.

He accused her of stealing $ _____ in cash from him and $ _____ in gold coins.

He complained that he was living on monthly disability checks of $ _____ for his bad back.
