3rd Conditional

Part 1. Complete the conditional clause using the past perfect form of the verb (had + past participle).

1. If I _____(wake) up on time, I wouldn't have been late for class.
2. If Mary _____(not, forget) her glasses yesterday, she would have been able to see the board in class.
3. Robert wouldn't have gone to the party if he _____(know) that Jane was going to be there.
4. If you _____(be) at the party, you would have met my cousin.
5. If we _____(have) more time, we could've visited more museums.

Part 2. Complete the result clause using would + have + past participle.

1. If it hadn't been raining last night, we _____(go) to the beach.
2. If Chad hadn't introduced himself to me, we _____(never, become) friends.
3. Christina _____(cut) her hair if she hadn't seen that picture in the magazine.
4. My mom _____(buy) more milk if she had known that I had already gotten some.
5. If I had known this meeting was going to be so long, I _____(drink) more coffee.

Part 3. Complete the sentences using the correct form of the 3rd conditional.

1. If my brother _____(keep) his car, he _____(be) able to drive me to the airport last week.
2. If I _____(not, eat) a whole tub of ice cream for lunch yesterday, I _____(have) dinner with you last night.
3. If James _____(hear) his alarm clock, he _____(not, arrive) late.
4. Carl _____(not, hurt) his ankle, if he _____(not, play) soccer on a slippery field.
5. Mark _____(not, buy) a new pair of shoes, if he _____(not, find) an envelope of cash.
6. If Jennifer _____(have) better friends, they_____(remember) her birthday.

Part 4. Read the sentences below and change them to the 3rd condition. Follow the examples.

Example: There was bad traffic. We were late.
If there hadn't been bad traffic, we wouldn't have been late.

Example: We didn't do the homework. We didn't pass the class.
If we had done the homework, we would've passed the class.

1. There was a storm. We got wet.
   _____
2. I broke my phone. I had to buy a new one.
   _____
3. I didn't eat breakfast. I was hungry during the exam.
   _____
4. I didn't call my girlfriend. She was mad at me.
   _____
5. It rained. I didn't go to the pool.
   _____