

Lesson 19: Friendship

- Write suggestions for choosing good friends
- Study and discuss the five love languages
- Practice syllable stress in two-syllable words
- Practice pronouncing the /ɛ/ & /æ/sounds

Choosing Good Friends

To choose a friend, you could pick someone who...

Perhaps good friends ...

If you want to have a good friend maybe ...

When choosing a friend, you might consider ...

Syllable Stress

My pretty girlfriend prepared the dinner.

My handsome boyfriend forgot my birthday.

The greatest love a person can show is to die for his friends.

A cheerful neighbor creates a pleasant garden.

People say that a friend is closer than a brother.

Box A: Descriptions

You're very ____ !

elegant exciting energetic ethical handsome attractive imaginative happy

You're ____ !

exceptional extraordinary eloquent magnificent fabulous fantastic

Pronunciation: /ɛ/ & /æ/

Box B: Affirmations

What a man!
What an athlete you are!
I'm glad you're my friend.
Your English is outstanding!
I'm your biggest fan!
You make me laugh!