My Favourite Restaurant

Anna

My favourite place to eat is an Italian restaurant called "Café Milano". However, my family and I only go there for special celebrations because it is quite expensive. The last time we visited Café Milano was for my mother's birthday in June. I ordered a dish called "Carbonara", something I had never tried before that is made with parmesan cheese, pasta and cream. When the waiter brought my dinner, he served it in a bowl made from bread instead of a traditional pasta bowl! It was such a fantastic meal!

Brian

The restaurant that I like most is called "Mezza" and it is an Ethiopian restaurant near my dad's office. Ethiopia, a large country in Eastern Africa that is famous for its bread called 'Injera' and various vegetable and meat stews called 'Wot'. Ethiopian food is traditionally eaten with your hands, which some people don't enjoy, but I find pretty fun. Another reason I like it is because of the spices they use. Not only do the spices make the food taste great, but it also makes the restaurant smell wonderful.

Alex

My favourite restaurant is a sushi bar called "Tokyo House". However, the first time I went there, I was worried because I didn't think I would like eating uncooked fish. But, my parents showed me that there were other things on the menu, so I got something called a "Rainbow Roll" because the picture looked exciting. When I got my food, I ate it fast because it was so good. After I had finished the whole thing, my mum told me there was actually fish in it! That was the day I learned I love sushi.
