

Vocabulary Session

Hitting (on) someone	To nervously await something.
Grinding (one's) teeth	Sleep like a baby.
Lie in (one's) hands	To interact with someone in a way that shows romantic interest.
To snore	To mess something up with litter, trash or possessions.
Fart around	A person, especially a child, who talks a lot.
Rap one's knuckles	Stop stalling or stammering and just say what you want or intend to say.
Bite (one's) nails	To spend time foolishly or aimlessly.
Being a chatterbox	To sleep heavily, without waking.
Litter (something) up	To give someone a minor warning, scolding or punishment.
Being late to your own funeral	To be particularly lazy or indolent.
To 'sleep like a log'	To talk incessantly or excessively, making someone become exhausted or bored.
Chew (one's) ear	Procrastinate or waste time idly.
Being (as) lazy as a bear	To be under one's control or influence.
Spit it out!	Said humorously to emphasise the fact that someone is always late or unpunctual.
Picking one's nose	To internalise one's anger without expressing it externally.