

"I've just had a conversation with my future self"

Listen to Annie's feedback on her « meet your future self experience ». Fill in the gaps with the missing words.

Well, I've just had awith my future self and it was quite funny becausea lot of things have changed in the future. And I asked about houses and..... and cinema and culture and so on. And the first they told me was that in the future houses are very different because they have made them completely so that people can the size of the rooms and move things around. And apparently now they have created robots to help with the housework and they have also created robots which have so you can become with your robot which is a idea.

And..... has completely changed because, well today it's 3D and 2D but apparently in the future they have made it completely immersive so that means the surround you when youit. And apparently,is very different because they have put all the on the so everyone canthem wherever they are in the world. And the last thing I asked about was and apparently they have all of the cars of today with driverless cars so that means the cars are able to drive themselves and that's quite a idea and the future sounds quite interesting so we'll have to just and.....
