

Countable and uncountable nouns

Listen to the conversation between Dave and his wife, Sunny.

Listen again and complete the dialogues.

1. D: I've got your list, but it just says milk. How _____ milk do we need?

S: Not _____. Just _____.

D: And how _____ eggs?

S: A dozen!

2. D: And how _____ tomatoes?

S: Not _____. Just _____

3. D: Is that all?

S: Let me check! We have _____ bananas. But there aren't _____ oranges. We have _____ coffee, but _____ any sugar.

4. D: What about orange juice? _____ in the fridge?

You know I have juice every morning.

S: _____. Please get _____

5. D: And vegetables? Do we need _____?

S: Well, we have _____ of potatoes and _____ onions,
but there aren't _____ carrots.

D: Right! I'll get _____ carrots and onions.