

Eat, Write, Post!

1 Do you love food? Do you love taking pictures of food? Do you have a talent for writing? Then perhaps you should become a food blogger! Food bloggers visit many different restaurants. Then they write about the experience on their personal blogs. They might also review street food, special snacks, and food festivals.

2 Being a food blogger is a lot of fun! But it is also hard work. Most food bloggers work alone. So they need to handle everything themselves. They take all the photos, write all the words, and manage their own websites. They also need to plan their time carefully. But with hard work comes great reward. A successful food blogger can get millions of hits on their blog and become very important in the food world!

3 See the calendar on the next page for an example of a food blogger's busy schedule. A calendar shows days and dates. For each day/date, you can add your "things-to-do" along with the time you plan to do them.
