

Rule 3 – should/shouldn't

We use should and shouldn't to give advice or to talk about what we think is right or wrong.

You should means something like I think it is a good idea for you to do it.

You shouldn't means something like I think it is a bad idea for you to do it.

Examples

- Ali works very long hours. He should talk to his boss.
- You look tired. I think you shouldn't go to school today.
