

Simple present tense

The simple present tense is a verb tense that indicates an action happens or doesn't happen regularly. In the simple present, most regular verbs use the root form, except in the third-person singular (which ends in -s). Verb ending depends on the subject (person).

THIRD PERSON SINGULAR RULE

⇒ Rule #1 (-s)

Most verbs like: dance, sing, look, walk, run, sleep...

⇒ Rule #2 (-es)

Verb ending in -sh, -ch, -o, -x, -ss

Example: watch-WATCHES, wash-WASHES, go-GOES, fix-FIXES, kiss-KISSES

⇒ Rule #3 (-ies)

Add -ies at the end of the verb, if the verb is preceded by a consonant. Verb ending in -y.

Example: fly FLIES, study- STUDIES, cry-CRIES

Exceptions:

- Stay – stays
- Play - plays

FIRST CONDITIONAL

It is used to talk about things that might happen in the future. The first conditional has two sentences, one is the if clause and the second is the will clause. Never use if and will together in the same sentence.

e.g.

If I will travel to London, I buy gifts for my family and friends. (incorrect)

If I travel to London, I will buy gifts for my family and friends. (correct)

The formula that we will use to make sentences is:

If + simple present

Will + infinitive verb

If I go to the supermarket, I will buy some groceries.

If Ana and Charlie buy the car, they will travel more.

Practice

Instructions. Complete the following exercise with the first conditional.

1. If I _____ (go) out tonight, I _____ (go) to the cinema.

2. If you _____ (get) back late, I _____ (be) angry.

3. If we _____ (not / see) each other tomorrow, we _____ (see) each other next week.

4. If he _____ (come), I _____ (be) surprised.
5. If we _____ (wait) here, we _____ (be) late.
6. If we _____ (go) on holiday this summer, we _____ (go) to Spain.

Second Conditional

First, we can use it to talk about things in the future that are probably not going to be true. Maybe I'm imagining some dream for example. Second, we can use it to talk about something in the present which is impossible, because it's not true. For this conditional you need to understand very well the simple past tense.

Let's review the simple past tense. We have two types of verbs irregular verbs and regular verbs. When using regular verbs add -ed at the end e.g. look- LOOKED, watch- WATCHED, dance- DANCED. For irregular verbs, there are many lists on internet. E.g. see- SAW, sing- SANG, meet, MET.

BASED FORM	PAST FORM
Be (is-am-are)	Was-were
Catch	Caught
Come	Came
Choose	Chose
Cut	Cut
Draw	Drew
Fight	Fought
Find	Found
Fly	Flew
Forget	Forgot
Get	Got
Make	Made
Have	Had
Do	Did
Give	Gave
Grow	Grew

The formula we use to make sentences with second conditional is:

If + simple past      Would+ infinitive verb
If I won (win) the lottery, I would buy a house.
If I got (get) promoted, I would ask for a new office.

Practice

2. If he  (be) younger, he  (travel) more.
3. If we  (not / be) friends, I  (be) angry with you.
4. If I  (have) enough money, I  (buy) a big house.
5. If she  (not / be) always so late, she  (be) promoted.
6. If we  (win) the lottery, we  (travel) the world.
7. If you  (have) a better job, we  (be) able to buy a new car

Present perfect progressive

It is used to describe an event that started in the past but is still happening in the present. That event in the present can be:

Formula:

subject + have/has+ been + verb +ing ending +complement

1. An habitual event:
  - a. I have been living in this house for 40 years.
  - b. I have been working out for 2 years.

We	have not been	waiting
They	have not been	waiting
