FALSE FRIENDS

Victim or collateral damage	Attend
A typical expression in a language	Terrific
Rational, mentally OK	Actually
University	Embarrassed
To help someone	Deception
A repugnance to something	Idiom
Distracted, absentminded	Assist
To feel ashamed or distressed	Fabric
To be aware of something	College
Magnificent, extraordinary	Molest
Providing false information	Disgust
Synonym of “in fact”	Lecture
To be present at	Preoccupied
Material used to make clothes	Realize
An academic talk	Sane
To touch sb inappropriately	Casualty

LIVEWORKSHEETS

FALSE FRIENDS

Attend - Terrific - Actually - Embarrassed - Deception

Idiom - Assist - Fabric - College - Molest - Disgust

Lecture Preoccupied - Realize - Sane - Casualty

1. I was too _____ to admit that I was scared.
2. Which school does your daughter _____?
3. He was found guilty of obtaining money by _____.
4. This _____ is used for making cushion covers.
5. We went to a _____ on Italian art.
6. The army arrived to _____ in the search for survivors.
7. You were _____ with the taxes, and I didn't want to bother you.
8. A _____ person would not do that.
9. Where do you go to _____?
10. He was filled with _____ at the smell.
11. I suddenly _____ I'd met him before.
12. So what _____ happened?
13. "Hit the roof" is an _____ meaning "get very angry."
14. I thought she looked _____.
15. The man had previously been arrested several times for _____ children.
16. The train was derailed but there were no _____, police said.

LIVEWORKSHEETS