

Vocabulary Evaluation -Teacher: Cami

Topic: Phrasal Verbs (A2)

Date: Friday, May 20th, 2022

PART i

- a. Complete the following sentences with its corresponding phrasal verb (Select from the box).

Turn around Take off Put out Throw away Look for Try on Pick up Get on Run out of Speak up Switch on Break up

1. When you "end a relationship with someone" you say: I _____ with my girlfriend/boyfriend.
2. This verb describes any change from one thing to its opposite: Maria _____ once she hears my voice.
3. When you "can not hear someone" you say: Hey, could you please _____, I can't hear you!
4. You may use _____ at the moment when an aircraft leaves the ground and begins to fly.
5. You may say: I am _____ when you are putting on a piece of clothing to see if it fits you or if you like it (mostly used when you go shopping).
6. You usually use _____ to make a machine stop or start working by pressing a switch.
7. To describe the wasting of your money (something), you may say: I am _____ my money _____.
8. If your brother is drinking alcohol a lot, you would say him: Hey STOP!, please _____ the alcohol for your own good!
9. When you are not having enough of something (eg. your shampoo). You say: I am _____ my shampoo, I need to buy a new one!
10. When you try to notice or search for someone or something (eg. Your wallet): You say: I am _____ my wallet inside my bag, I leave it there yesterday!

PART II

b. Select the most appropriate form for each sentence. Be careful when reading!

1. Hey! It is very hot here, could you please _____ the fan?
switch on / switching off / switched on
2. Carlos, I can't see anything in the room, Could you please _____ turn the lights on / turning the light on / turned the lights on
3. Hi Lori, what time will you go to school?
- Can you please _____? I can't hear you!
speaking up / spoke up / speak up
4. Fasten your seat belts, the flight is in a minute.
take out / taking out / taking off
5. Quick, get on the bus or you will have to walk home.
getting on / got on / get on
6. The teacher asked me to _____ the fan in the classroom.
switching on / switch on / switched on
7. These poor people _____ of water every week because of the drought!
running out of / ran out of / run out of
8. Hi Peter, you have a lot of trash in your room...
- I know, I _____ all my trash tomorrow!
will throw away / put out / threw away
9. I am _____ money! I will probably need a loan!
run out of / will run out of / running out of 10. Hey, could you please _____, I am talking to you!
go back / look at me / turn around