

Idioms # 3- 1 ~ 6

1.

means to fail to do something that was your responsibility.

2.

it is exactly what is needed or wanted.

3.

you avoid doing something, usually by lying or persuading someone in a clever way.

4.

you choose to not pay attention to it. \chose to ignore

5.

when one event causes a series of other things to happen.

6.

means that sometimes people have limited control, over what life brings them.