

Unit 7: A Place to live – Renting an apartment

1) Look at the expressions in the 2 columns. Match the question with the answer.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| a) Where do you want to live? | 1) Yes, I'd like to rent a house |
| b) How much can you pay? | 2) Not really. I'm looking for a house |
| c) Can I help you? | 3) I can pay about $200 a week |
| d) How many rooms do you want? | 4) I want only one bedroom |
| e) Are you looking for an apartment? | 5) I want to live in the center of the city |

2. Read the lines of conversation. Who says them, the customer or the real estate agent? Write C or RE.

Renting an apartment

1) _____ Not my color. I am looking for a red one.	5) _____ It looks perfect in the picture. How much is it?
2) _____ Hello, can I help you?	6) _____ It is great. I will rent it. Thank you! Good bye!
3) _____ How about this red one? It is in the center.	7) _____ How about this green apartment?
4) _____ Hello, I'd like to rent an apartment	8) _____ The rent is $300 a week

3. Now put the sentences from exercise 2 in the correct order.

Real Estate Agent:

Customer:

Real Estate Agent:

Customer:

Real Estate Agent:

Customer:

Real Estate Agent:

Customer: