

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

"Comparatives and superlatives"

1. Write the comparative and superlative form of the following adjectives.

Adjective	Comparative form	superlative form
 Important :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Boring :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Lovely :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Nervous :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Selfish :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Smart :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Colorful :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Weak :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

2. Complete the sentences by using the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives in parentheses.

 An elephant is <input type="text"/> (big) than a tiger.
 Mary is the <input type="text"/> (thin) girl in the class.
 Britain isn't very popular. France is <input type="text"/> . (popular)
 My cousin, melisa, is the <input type="text"/> (young) girl in my family.
 Maths is <input type="text"/> (difficult) than History.
 A car is <input type="text"/> (expensive) than a bike.
 It's the <input type="text"/> (good) song on the album.
 A dog is <input type="text"/> (short) than an elephant.
 Summer is the <input type="text"/> (hot) season of all.
 It is the <input type="text"/> (large) shop in town.
 Ann is the <input type="text"/> (young) child in the family.