WORKSHEET FOR THE TEST

LISTENING TIPS
- Read the questions before you listen
- Look for key words to listen to so that you find the answers during the listening
- Take notes of relevant information

Listening Comprehension
IV. Listen to the audio carefully and answer the questions. Complete the missing information according to the audio Recording: 85

Look at the pictures and look for key words. What's the listening about?

Guiding questions:
- What animals are there in the photo?
- Where are them?
- Why is there a selfie in picture C?

1. The news is
   a) Charming
   b) Shocking
   c) nice

2. Eels have a _____ personality
   a) retiring
   b) fascinating
   c) perso

3. Eels conduct is _____ to the aquarium staff.
   a) Worrying
   b) Interesting
   c) Staff

4. The aquarium had a _____ idea.
   a) good
   b) boring
   c) challenging

5. The director posted an _____ text message
   a) quiet
   b) encouraging
   c) alarming

REMEMBER!

Facts are usually dates, descriptions, celebrations, among others.
Opinions are usually introduced by words such us "good/bad", "best/worst", "like/don't like" and any other adjective that qualifies the sentence.

II. Differentiate the following sentences according to their context. Are they facts or opinions?

6. A fact is….
a) A piece of information that can't be proven
b) A piece of information that can be proven
c) Someone's feelings about a specific topic

7. An opinion is…
a) A piece of information that can't be proven
b) A piece of information that can be proven
c) Someone's feelings about a specific topic

8. Choose the sentence that represents a fact.
a) Mother's Day is celebrated in May.
b) This has been a terrible week
c) Sunday is the best day of the week.

9. Choose the sentence that represents an opinion.
a) Osorno is a very clean city
b) Smoke detectors can help save lives
c) Our house was built last year

10. Which one of these sentences DOESN'T represent a fact?
a) Water is vital for human beings
b) I like lions
c) Black is a colour

11. Which one of these sentences DOESN'T represent an opinion?
a) Reading is the most important subject in school
b) Some cats kill birds
c) Dogs make better pets than cats.