

TECHNICAL ENGLISH

4TH YEAR

Teacher: Bessón Sandra

1-Complete the sentences using the correct form of PRESENT SIMPLE.

1. We.....(use) dictionaries in class.
2. My friends.....(study) Italian at school.
3. Electrical energy.....(come) from different sources.
4. He.....(work)in a factory.
5. I.....(not use) the computer at home.
6.you.....(use) machines at work?
7. Karen.....(not work) in this company.
8.electrical power.....travel through cables?
9. Sebastian(study) Architecture at university.
10. Susan.....(not live) in New York, she lives in Texas.

2-Read the text and write it in Spanish using your own words.

The Electrical Engineer

Electrical engineers understand the principles of electricity and magnetism. As college undergraduates, they learn the rules that govern these fields. As engineers, they apply those rules to their work. Electrical engineers develop, design and test electrical systems and components. Electrical engineering is very extremely important. People need electricity in their homes and business. They depend on electrical engineers' skills for power transmission.