GETTING TO KNOW

In the book Common Wealth, Gregg Dreise, suggests that we should get to know our neighbours better. For many Australians today the people on their street are strangers. With an adult to accompany you visit one of your neighbours on your street and introduce yourself and provide your answers to the questions below. Then ask them the following questions.

1. What is their first name and the names of the other people who live at their home?

_____

2. What is their favourite game to play?

_____

3. Do they have any pets and if so what are they?

_____

4. What are their favourite past times?

_____

5. Where are they from?

_____

You could repeat this with more than one neighbour if you wish to get to know more people in your street.
