

Let alone, except for, regardless of, not to mention

1. Who has TIME to pack a bag, _____ take that bag somewhere?
2. All of our employees, _____ a small group, will be sent home and terminated at a later date.
3. _____ the three traditional roles, modern government also performs additional roles.
4. I just don't see any political will anywhere, _____ on the required massive scale, to make change.
5. Anybody who is in the gym, _____ their physique or fitness level, deserves respect simply for the fact that they are there making the effort to improve themselves in some way.
6. They were nobodies and had nothing, _____ strong wills and rugged determination.
7. The truth is we can not change the beliefs of others _____ how the discussion is framed.
8. It was a challenge buying food for them _____ doing it for myself, " McCarty said.
9. The average American's life doesn't change much _____ who wins an election.
10. _____ Barack Obama, for good or bad, I may be the next most nationally well-known politician or at least in the top ten.
11. Poor diet and lack of sleep could make a huge difference, some days. Of course, there were also days it didn't matter one bit, I could get as much sleep as I wanted and still feel despair.
_____ that many of the " helpful " things feel like they require waaaaay too much effort and energy once you're already depressed.
12. Think about all of the investment into the game before a single dollar is returned. It's a huge risk, and it's understandable why publishers don't take it lightly (especially when 40-60% of software projects will fail before hitting release, _____ sales).
13. She would have received the care and treatment _____ her ability to pay.

14. They also don't possess any enhanced functionality, _____ making the new feature of authenticating a website a streamlined part of the sign-up process and directing account owners to a Pinterest how-to for businesses.

15. The author expressly prohibits the copying of any protected materials on this website, _____ the purposes of fair use.

16. I'd also have to quit judging people (except for conservatives).

17. I have to pay 25 percent of my production for taxes to the state and for irrigation. _____ this, I can use my harvest as I want.

18. However, _____ the Quran, all other books are not valid anymore.

19. But one thing is certain: _____ how you define it, it will kill you.

20. They do love to roll in the water, _____ the mud or dust.