Dear Kristina,

Several children sent us ideas for the cover of our new children's magazine. It was difficult to choose a winner so I chose two! They are attached. Some of the ideas looked very <sup>1</sup> professional (profession) with <sup>2</sup> _____ (beauty) artwork. However, we didn't choose them. Although they were very <sup>3</sup> _____ (attract), we were a bit <sup>4</sup> _____ (suspicion) that the children hadn't actually designed them themselves.

The two I've attached are very different to each other. The first is quite <sup>5</sup> _____ (humour) with a <sup>6</sup> _____ (wonder), and very <sup>7</sup> _____ (imagine) picture and a very funny title. I think you'll like it. The second is a <sup>8</sup> _____ (mystery) entry. It's a very <sup>9</sup> _____ (origin) design but we have no idea who sent it in. There's a name and phone number on it. We tried to phone but the person said that they hadn't entered our competition!

The competition has been a huge success. It has been a very <sup>10</sup> _____ (use) way to find out more about our readers. We also found a cheap and <sup>11</sup> _____ (effect) way to design our first cover, or two!

Let me know what you think of them.

Bradley
