

HABITS FOR SUCCESSFUL PEOPLE

Watch the video about habits for successful and then match each MAIN IDEA with its correct DETAILS.

TAKE FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THEIR LIFE	DISCIPLINE AND SELF CONTROL	MAKE HEALTH AND EXERCISE A PRIORITY	READ AND LEARN CONTINUOUSLY
KNOW THEIR PRIORITIES	GOAL ORIENTED	AREN'T AFRAID TO FAIL	VALUE ALONE TIME
SURROUND THEMSELVES WITH LIKE-MINDED ACHIEVERS	HAVE A SUPPORT SYSTEM	COMMUNICATE CLEARLY	MANAGE THEIR EMOTIONS

They speak with authority and confidence and talk about ideas in a way that connects deeply with their audience.

They're aware of how their emotions influence their thoughts and behavior. So they learn how to detach from the unnecessary ones.

They never complain, nor do they blame others for their problems. They are responsible for all the good and bad in their life.

They always count on people to rely on and bounce ideas off, such as a partner, friends, family, mentor, etc.

They spend time mostly with people they can learn from and people who inspire them.

Not only do they set goals, but they also make the detailed plans on how to achieve those goals.

They choose learning and knowledge over entertaining books. Bill Gates read 50 books a year.

They take time alone to think and connect to their intuition which gives them a clearer direction in life.

They know that failure is good because it is just a learning opportunity. It teaches you what doesn't work.

They do the most important tasks first. They understand that the content of what they work on, matters.

They know how to stay focused on tasks and not fall for distractions. They keep their eyes on the goals.

They know that regular exercise and a healthy diet can lead to higher levels of productivity and happiness.