2) Listen. Use the verbs in the past from exercise 1 to complete the lyrics.

This is where I _____ up

This is where I _____ how to read

I learned how to sing

My brother always _____ me at the best games

He always _____ the lead

He _____ then I went

And he _____ out two months ago

I'm next now and I know it

I don't know how he _____ it

I'm not sure where I'm going

But I can't stay

What if I fall down?

What if nobody sees me?

What if I miss out?

What if I'm never happy?

But what if it goes the right way?

What if it's all that I _____ ?

What if I'll be okay?

What if I'll be

Okay, Okay, Okay?

Packing up my things

What do I want to keep?

What do I want to leave?

My room is empty I _____ to

Rearrange the furniture so

It'd look like it _____ full

And now my stomach is sinking 'cause

Time's up now and I know it

My mom said I _____ stay if

That's what I really wanted

But I can't

3) Put the lyrics in order.

_____ What if nobody sees me?

_____ What if I fall down?

_____ What if I'm never happy?

_____ What if I'll be okay?

_____ But what if it goes the right way?

_____ What if it's all that I wanted?

_____ What if I miss out?

What if I'll be

Okay, Okay, Okay?

Home for the holidays

Only a call away

They'll come visit me some days

Only a drive away

Home for the holidays (I can't wait)

Only a call away (promise you'll call me)

They'll come visit me some days (some days)

What if I fall down?

What if nobody sees me?

What if I miss out?

What if I'm never happy?

But what if I find myself?

What if I learn something different?

What if I pick myself up?

Jesus is always with me

And if it goes the wrong way

He can make all things beautiful

I know I'll be okay

Okay, Okay, Okay
