People have different views regarding the condition presented in the question. Many believe that sharing information in scientific research, business and the academic spheres is a must. However, others believe that ---------- should not be shared freely. My---------- is that information must be shared if it benefits the world. This essay would discuss the above two ---------- and my opinion.

On one hand, information plays a vital role in all aspects of life, ----------information helps people to ---------- knowledge, and shared information helps new ----------and scientific discoveries. Specifically, students are greatly benefitted from shared research literature ,they need them to ----------their studies. Not only the students but also the other professionals , teachers, doctors, and---------- need the information to improve their professional practices. Furthermore, ---------- internet-based range of websites also contributes ----------to sharing knowledge.

On the other hand, I think, the authors must be protected by copyright and ---------- the valuable information ----------unscrupulous elements in the society. Moreover, the information shared on social ---------- is being manipulated through the algorithm power of mega-companies ---------- the world. This practice is highly unethical. Mega companies like Facebook and Amazon have been ---------- of stealing information . In internet-based dark practices, there are many opportunities for misusing ----------.

In conclusion, I would like to suggest that information must be shared to serve the world at any cost. However, the room ---------- for malpractices using freely exchanged information must be ---------- by imposing laws on digital communication. Information ---------- used correctly by good people ,a blessing ,the opposite is also true ,when misused could be injurious to the society.
