Bill Gates

Bill Gates is a very important person in the computer industry. He is a chief executive officer of Microsoft Corporation. He is also one of the richest person in the United States. How did he do it?

He learned a lot from his parents. While Bill was going to school, his father went to college, got a degree, and became a successful lawyer. From this, Bill learned that you have to work hard if you want something. His mother was a very busy teacher, but she also enjoyed going to parties. From this, he learned something else. If you work hard and play hard, you have to make a schedule.

When Bill was young, he spent a lot of time alone. While most of his friends were playing, Bill read all of the World Book Encyclopedia and finished it when he was 8 years old. Bill's childhood was not all work; however, he used to play sports – swimming, water skiing, tennis. He was very serious about sport. He loved winning and hated losing. He thought that every home was going to have a computer, and every computer would need software - his software. He said, "I'm going to make my first million dollars on software by the time I'm 25". And he did!
