

- 4 Compare the present simple and the present continuous:

He sits at a desk every day.

He's sitting at his desk at the moment.

Grammar in action

- 5 We use the present simple to talk about facts that are always true. We use the present continuous to talk about things that are only true at the moment or in the present period of time:

You cook wonderful meals.

(= always or usually)

He's cooking a meal in the kitchen.

(= right now)

- 6 We use the present simple for permanent situations. We use the present continuous for temporary situations:

My husband works for a computer company, but he's working at home today.

- 7 We use the present simple for things we do regularly (e.g. in our daily routine). We can use it with words and phrases describing how often something happens (always, sometimes, often, never, usually, every day, etc.):
- I go to bed at ten and get up at six every day.*

We do not use the present continuous with this meaning:

I sometimes wear a hat.

(NOT I'm sometimes wearing a hat.)

- 8 We often use the present continuous with 'now' and phrases meaning 'now', for example at the moment, right now, this week, this month. We do not use the present simple with these words and phrases:
- I'm sitting in a traffic jam at the moment.* (NOT I sit ...)

- 9 We use the present simple with verbs that describe what we feel and think. These verbs are connected with what is in our minds, not with actions. They describe what we like (for example like, dislike, hate, love), what we want (want, need), what we know (know, understand, realize, remember) and what we believe (believe, think). We do not use the present continuous with these verbs:

I don't understand this letter.

(NOT I'm not understanding this letter.)
