THEORY

TOO MUCH, TOO MANY, TOO - USES

-I have too much work → Quantifiers express 'more than is good'

-My boss talks too much → Too much + uncountable noun

-I eat too many sweets → Too many + countable noun

-I'm too tired (too + an adjective) → Too + an adjective I'm ~~too much~~ tired

(NOT) ENOUGH- USES

-I don't drink enough water → Enough before a noun means 'all that is necessary'

-He doesn't sleep enough → Enough after a verb with no object

-It isn't big enough for a family → Enough after an adjective/adverb

EXERCISES

Select the correct form:

She has walked too much far / too far, she's tired

1. He doesn´t eat meat enough/enough meat.
2. How many/much money have brought?
3. She's too quiet/too much quiet

TRANSLATION

Ha caminado demasiado, está cansada

1. No come suficiente carne
2. ¿Cuánto dinero ha traído?
3. Está demasiado callada

MÉTODO ISO - JMB

LIVEWORKSHEETS

THEORY

TOO MUCH, TOO MANY, TOO - USES

-I have too much work → Quantifiers express 'more than is good'

-My boss talks too much → Too much + uncountable noun

-I eat too many sweets → Too many + countable noun

-I'm too tired (too + an adjective) → Too + an adjective I'm ~~too much~~ tired

(NOT) ENOUGH- USES

-I don't drink enough water → Enough before a noun means 'all that is necessary'

-He doesn't sleep enough → Enough after a verb with no object

-It isn't big enough for a family → Enough after an adjective/adverb

EXERCISES

Complete the sentences with too, too much, too many or enough:

There are too many students in that class

1. They told me my dog is _____fat
2. There were _____ foreigners at the conference
3. I usually drink _____ tea
4. Do you have _____ paper in your folder?

TRANSLATION

Hay demasiados alumnos en esa clase

1. Me han dicho que mi perro está demasiado gordo
2. Había demasiados extranjeros en la conferencia
3. Suelo beber demasiado té
4. ¿Tienes suficiente papel en tu carpeta?

MÉTODO ISO - JMB

LIVEWORKSHEETS