

Where do we live?

Grammar: Possessive 's

An apostrophe (dấu lược) is used (được sử dụng) in a possessive form (dạng sở hữu), like John's house or Lily's orchard.

Combine sentences using possessive 's.

This library belongs to Ali.
It is old.

This bakery belongs to Ted.
It is new.

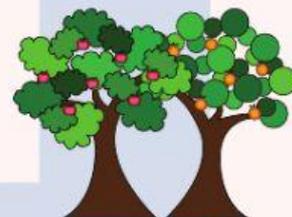

This restaurant belongs to Peter.
It is boring.

This supermarket belongs to Linda.
It is noisy.

This cornfield belongs to Matt.
It is quiet.

This orchard belongs to Hannah.
It is interesting.

Where do we live?

Listening 2

Listen and circle the correct words.

Jay likes / doesn't like the city.
He likes / doesn't like the country.

Mrs. Perez likes / doesn't like the city.
She likes / doesn't like the country.

Mr. Brown likes / doesn't like the city.
He likes / doesn't like the country.

Ella likes / doesn't like the city.
She likes / doesn't like the country.

Listen again and answer the question below.

Do they all like the city? Why or why not?
(Write 3 reasons)