

a) Look at the chart, make questions and answer them using comparatives or superlatives.

|        | Dash | Violet | Jack |
|--------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Age    | 10 years                                                                                  | 14 years                                                                                     | 1 year old                                                                                  |
| Height | 1.45 m                                                                                    | 1.50 m                                                                                       | 62 cm                                                                                       |
| Weight | 35 kg                                                                                     | 40 kg                                                                                        | 10 kg                                                                                       |
| Fast   | xxxx                                                                                      | xxx                                                                                          | x                                                                                           |

1. Who is (old) of all?

_____?
_____.

2. Who is (young) of all?

_____?
_____.

3. Who (tall) Dash or Violet?

_____?
_____.

4. Who (heavy) Jack or Violet?

_____?
_____.

5. Who (fast) Jack or Dash?

_____?
_____.

b) Combine the sentences using who, that or where.

1. He is the boy. The man hates peanuts.

_____.

2. Yanet is the doctor. The doctor speaks English.

_____.

3. This is the bottle. The bottle is the smallest.

_____.

4. Those are the apples. The apples are the cheapest.

_____.

5. That is the laptop. My uncle bought it.

_____.