JUSTIN BIEBER

Justin Bieber is my favorite singer. I love his music. He make me ..... when I hear him singing. When I am really down and ..... I will hear one of Justin's songs.

He is also ..... I like the way he sings and when I first heard him sing 'Baby' and saw him do the video of the song and that's how I started liking him. He can also play any kind of instruments that I like, for example: guitar, and piano. I became a belieber since I listen to his music from the first time.

His music gave me a ..... feeling, like he was there for me to comfort and help me. The most ..... thing is that Justin taught me to never say never. He teach me that dreams do come true, if you really want it. He made me smile, I can talk hours about what I love about Justin, his hair, his voice, his dougie, his eyes, his humour. but this is what I tell people first. This is the reason why I really love him.
