Dear Miss Manners,

Last spring my husband and I bought a new vacation home. It is a beautiful house on a private beach. We were looking forward to spending a peaceful, relaxing summer alone on the beach and in our new home. Well, we haven't even moved in yet and distant family members who we have not seen in years have started calling us! Suddenly, everyone wants to come and visit us and stay for a week! We don't mind having close family to come and stay for a day or two, but I don't want to spend the whole summer looking after lots of other people and entertaining them. I have already made a few distant family members angry by telling them we are too busy for visitors. Please help! How can I tell my family politely that I don't want any houseguests this summer? ---
-Fatima

Dear Fatima,

I'm sorry that your plans for a quiet summer are not working out. Uninvited guests can be annoying! I suggest that you tell your family that your house is not ready for visitors yet. Tell them that your husband will be fixing the leaky roof and you'll be cleaning up after the old owners. Suggest they come and visit you in the wintertime instead. This might keep people away until next summer at least!
