

Karen's Family

Reading

Read the following text, then complete the statements with the quantifiers

My name is Karen and I have a big family. There are ten people in my family, including me. Eight people in my family know how to drive a car, but only four of them have a car. Five people in my family know how to swim. The ten members of my family know how to make pizza. Zero people in my family speak English. Only three people in my family like burgers. Two people in my family likes spicy food, including me. Six people in my family know how to swim, but only two of them swim very well.

Write down statements about Karen's family using quantifiers: all, nearly all, most, many, a lot of, some, not many, few, no one.

1. All members of Karen's family know how to make pizza.
2. _____.
3. _____.
4. _____.
5. _____.
6. _____.
7. _____.
8. _____.
9. _____.
10. _____.