

45.1 Look at A. Match the beginning of each sentence with its ending.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 I think caviar must be an acquired | a fumes from the factory behind it. |
| 2 The delicious aroma of fresh coffee | b is just too bitter for my taste. |
| 3 The park was spoilt by the noxious | c wafted in from the kitchen. |
| 4 We just loved the fragrant | d smoke from the bonfire. |
| 5 I particularly enjoy the subtle | e taste – I don't like it very much. |
| 6 Smell the bottle and tell me if the milk | f perfume of the blossom on the trees. |
| 7 I usually love coffee but this coffee | g is sour or OK to drink still. |
| 8 It must be the wet wood causing such acrid | h flavours that herbs give to food. |

acrid smoke	positive	negative
appetising aroma	positive	negative
foul-smelling chemicals	positive	negative
fragrant perfume	positive	negative
musty smell	positive	negative
noxious fumes	positive	negative
overpowering stink	positive	negative
revolting stench	positive	negative
fresh scent	positive	negative
pungent	positive	negative
rancid	positive	negative