

Let's put words to work!

A. Complete the sentences with Present Perfect and the verb in brackets.

1. I can't find my keys. I think I _____ (leave) them at home.
2. That's a nice picture you _____ (draw) in your notebook.
3. She's an incredibly talented singer. She _____ (sing) in front of hundreds of people.
4. She's a famous writer who _____ (write) 50 books so far.
5. I don't like that dog. He _____ (bite) two people before.
6. She's an experienced pilot and she _____ (fly) for more than 2,000 hours.
7. There's not a single leaf on that tree. All of them _____ (fall) to the ground.
8. The last time I saw Ricky, he was 9. He's 15 now, and he _____ (grow) so much!
9. They're not friends any more and they _____ (not speak) for years.
10. I _____ (not ride) a horse before. I hope I don't fall off!

B. Read the text and complete the gaps with "for" and "since".

I'm visiting my friend Svetlana in St Petersburg _____ a few days this summer. I haven't seen Svetlana _____ 2013, when we studied English together on a course in Wales. I've chatted with her _____ many hours online _____ then, and I'm glad we've stayed in touch. She tells me she's looking forward to my visit because she hasn't gone out much _____ last autumn. It's snowed a lot _____ December, she says, and she hasn't seen much sun _____ a long time. Anyway, I'm sure it will be sunny when I get there and we'll have a great time.