Where to find Goddington Theatre

Goddington Theatre can be found within the Goddington University site, next to the car park, which is available for public use after 5 p.m. on weekdays and all day at weekends.

If travelling by car

Coming from the South end of Princes Street, you will see the library on your right. The next building on your right is Goddington University - there is a pedestrian Crossing outside the front entrance. Take the next turning on the right after the crossing (into Broad Street) which takes you along the side of Goddington university - then first right into the car park. Drive up to the car park gate straight ahead of you, stopping as close as possible to the orange machine. Put a £1 coin in the machine and the gate will rise. (Note: Do not try to put a coin in the machine by getting out of your car, it is likely that by the time you get back in your car the gate will already be closed again).

Other car parks are shown on the map. There is an hourly charge. You may find a free parking place on one of the side streets.

If travelling by train

You will need to allow 30 minutes to walk from the station. Taxis are available from the front of the station.

If travelling by bus/coach

The University is a 5 to 10-minute walk from the main bus station.

Taxis

When ordering a taxi from the theatre, ask to be picked up at the bottom of North Street. Taxis will not come into the car park because of the entrance charge.

Questions 30-33 refer to the following magazine article:

Business travelers usually find that they have little time to exercise, especially when their schedules are suddenly changed by late meetings or late flights. But everyone should get some exercises. These are ways to make exercise part of your day even when you cannot make it to the hotel's exercise room. Experts suggest stretching your neck, arms, back, and shoulders while sitting in your airplane muscles. Then you can run in place for a good aerobic workout. Exercise is not just for your body. It is for your mind as well. The mind - body connection has long been established by professional medical associations. People who exercise regularly perform more efficiently at work and perform more effectively than their colleagues who don't exercise. So to get ahead of everyone else, try to exercise every day, even when travelling.
