

Complete the dialogue with going to and the verbs in brackets.

Karina What <sup>1</sup> are we going to watch (watch) on TV tonight?

Alec Well, I <sup>2</sup> not miss (not miss) The Simpsons tonight. It's my favourite programme. Do you remember what happened last week?

Dad There's a football match on TV tonight. It starts at seven o'clock.

Karina Oh no! It ends at ten o'clock.

Mum No, he isn't! My favourite quiz show is on at eight o'clock. I <sup>4</sup> watch (watch) that. And you and your brother <sup>5</sup> finish (finish) your homework before you watch anything.

Karina OK, Mum. I don't mind. I <sup>6</sup> record (record) In the House. It's my favourite reality show. I can watch it later.

Alec So, what about The Simpsons? Dad <sup>7</sup> watch (watch) the football, Mum <sup>8</sup> see (see) her programme, Karina <sup>9</sup> not miss (not miss) her reality show – what about me?

Dad Don't worry. I <sup>10</sup> do (do) some work this evening. I don't really want to watch the football!

Alec / Dad!
