

3 Adjectives ending in -ing and -ed

Some common adjectives are formed from verbs and have both -ing and -ed forms.

We use the -ed form to describe our feelings:

I'm tired. (= a description of how I feel: I've used up all my energy so I need a rest)

We use the -ing form to describe the things which make us feel like this:

This work is tiring. (= a description of the work: it takes a lot of energy to do it)

Compare these sentences:

Hi Helga

Just wanted to tell you that I went to the seaside last Saturday with my friends. I was really glad that they phoned me because I was feeling fed up and I was relieved to have something to do. But when we got to the seaside I realised they were going to the theme park and I've always been scared of the big rides. I got a bit angry with them because they hadn't told me. But in the end they persuaded me to go with them. As I sat there waiting for the first ride to begin, I could feel my heart beating faster and faster, but as soon as it started I forgot to feel anxious about it because it was such fun. When I got off I was surprised to realise how much I'd enjoyed it and I went on all the other rides too! You must come with me next time.

Love, Tina
