39 cents

Charles Daniels: Hello. I'm Charles Daniels. years, we've taking it to villages like his, and showing you the heartbreak of whose only mistake was being born . They need your help. And for only 39 cents a day, you can provide water, food and for these people. Just 39 cents, that's less than a small cup of coffee, but it can make all the difference in the world to the people in this village.

Jay: Ask for more.

Charles Daniels: Sorry?

Jay: Ask for more money. Why are you so low?

Charles Daniels: As you can see these villagers are for your help. So, don't hesitate. Pick up the phone.

Kenan: Ay, what they shooting?

Jay: of something.

Kenan: A what?

Charles Daniels: Dial the number and send over 39 cents. That's all we need.

Kenan: higher!

Jay: I know, right?

Charles Daniels: 39 cents may not sound like , but it can mean so much to these families.

Jay: It's not even a round number. Like, if he said a dollar, I could see how he got there.

Kenan: Yeah, but you know, they always have to take away a penny to make it sound like .

Jay: I get that. I'm just , why not start at 99 cents?

Charles Daniels: 39 cents, that's all these people need survive. And they'd be so, so and appreciative to get it. So, for the price of a cup coffee.

Sasheer: Who that?

Kenan: He talking about all they need to send is a bare minimum to keep us .

Charles Daniels: We're not asking for the bare minimum. This number has been decided by very and caring people who can save your lives.

Sasheer: How?

Charles Daniels: How?

Sasheer: How are you gonna save our lives from only 39 cents? Because I'm to do the math in my head but I just can't see it.

Charles Daniels: 39 cents is plenty.

Leslie: He keeps saying 39 cents. Why you keep saying 39 cents?

Charles Daniels: For the price of a cup of coffee.

Leslie: Why can't it be the price of Arizona Tea? They 99 cents.

Charles Daniels: Because it's not the price of an Arizona. It's gotta be coffee.

Jay: It though.

Sasheer: Plus, coffee is way than 39 cents.

Charles Daniels: It's 39 cents. You know, for starving village, you people have a lot of . Maybe people will just send their checks some place else.

Kenan: Oh, you asking for a check? Yo, why would you ask for a check?

Sasheer: You'd settle for a check.

Charles Daniels: It's got to be a check, okay?

Jay: It don't though.

Ballery: Here's your coffee and your , Mr. Daniels.

Charles Daniels: Perfect timing Ballery. I love it.

Kenan: Hey, white lady, how much is that coffee?

Charles Daniels: It matter.

Leslie: I bet you don't know what country you in.

Charles Daniels: I do know what country I'm in.

Jay, Kenan, Sasheer and Leslie: What? What country are you at?

Charles Daniels: ?

Jay, Kenan, Sasheer and Leslie: Oh! Listen! Hell no!

Leslie: Hey! If you see this cheap ass white man again, you send us $200 cash right now. Don't hesitate.
