

How much / How many / A lot of

Use MUCH in

- negative sentences and questions with uncountable nouns

Use A LOT OF in

- affirmative sentences with plural countable nouns and uncountable nouns

Use much, many or a lot of.

How much wool do you need to make a sweater?

We don't know French people.

Mr. Clinton is a rich man. He has money.

How many apples are there in the basket?

There were children on the bus.

There aren't books on the shelves yet.

Our history teacher doesn't usually give us homework.

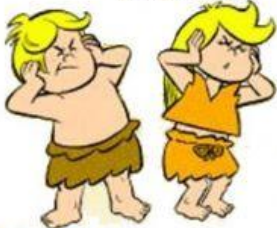

There's snow outside. Let's make a snowman.

There are different vegetables in the stall.

You shouldn't eat too sweets. They're unhealthy.

There's too noise in here. We can't stand it.

Jack eats too junk food. He should eat more fruit.

Use MANY in

- negative sentences and questions with plural countable nouns

There isn't apple pie left. I'll bake another one.

How much did you pay for your plimsolls?