

Vocabulary

spend time

to find information by research in a book or on a computer playing around

to use the internet

look (something) up

to give time to an activity or with a person

go online

act in a foolish or silly way

hugely

good or bad behaviour

not alone

the way you act, the things you do manners

a phrase to show that person is not the only person with that problem incredibly

not long ago

behaviour

to have a clear meaning

makes sense

an adverb that means very much, very big

recently

a phrase that means to finish a phone call quickly something 'goes' (or past tense 'went') taking a picture of yourself

hang up to cause unhappiness or make someone feel sad by what we say or do receive support

a casual phrase which means something stopped working disrespectful

extremely - perhaps something hard to believe selfie

to be rude and not show respect

give something up a phrase that means to not do something or to stop doing something hurt someone's feelings

to get help, advice and people agree with you