

Name: _____

Class code: _____

Date: _____

Preventive Maintenance Plan

1 Complete the sentences and match with the corresponding image

The technician ____ checking the machine for faults.

Zalma and Jim ____ buying tools.

I ____ welding the metal parts.

The engineers ____ looking the blueprints.

My partner ____ lubricating the engine.

You ____ learning technical English.

2 Complete the dialogue. Use these words:

testing are you could will would Supervisor (Eddie Byers): Good morning Carl, _____ lubricating the gears?

Technician (Carl Finn): Good morning, Yes sir, I am _____ the new lubricant.

Supervisor (Eddie Byers): That's good, when you are finished _____ you come to my office please?

I _____ like to know your opinion about the new lubricant and mention another topic.

Technician (Carl Finn): Of course, I _____ be there in a few minutes.

(Technician arrives at the supervisor's office).

will I need could reforming will should are

Supervisor (Eddie Byers): Thanks for coming Carl, _____ you to review the preventive maintenance plan we have for the company's machines, I know you are an expert on the subject.

Technician (Carl Finn): Sure sir, I _____ be glad to do it, we _____ start with the objectives defined in the current plan.

Supervisor (Eddie Byers): Perfect, I agree, at this moment the maintenance area is _____ all the documentation and your help _____ come in handy.

Technician (Carl Finn): Yes, sir absolutely!, _____ you start with this task right now?

Supervisor (Eddie Byers): Of course, I also assigned two more technicians to this task, they _____ inspecting the machines and will arrive soon

3 Complete the chart with each step in the correct order

List assest and tasks

Manage priorities and resources

Define goals and priorities

Review and improve

Define performance indicators

THE 5 STEPS OF A PREVENTIVE MAINTENANCE PLAN

