Synonyms for mistake and error.

1. It is a(n) _____ to argue with your friends.

a. error b. mistake c. fault d. slip.

2. The new assistant made a _____ , and as a result all the accounts were messed up.

a.blunder b. slip c. misunderstanding d. fault.

3. Don't blame yourself; it's not your _____ .

a. slip b. error c. misunderstanding d. fault.

4. The engineer was quick to point out the technical _____ in the drawing.

a. blunders b. blips c. errors d. slips

5. I can understand your Spanish in spite of the grammar _____ you make.

a. misunderstandings b. slips c. mistakes d. defects.

6. Sorry, I didn't mean to say that; it was a(n) _____ of the tongue.

a. fault b. error c. slip d. mistake.

7. Whose _____ is that the pizza delivery's late? Hour's I am afraid.

a. fault b. error c. blunder d. slip.

8. Your composition is full of _____ .

a. faults b. slips c. mistakes d. defects.

9. You will make a terrible _____ in introducing her to your parents.

a. defect b. error c. slip d. blunder.

10. The child broke the expensive vase, but it was his mother's _____ for letting play him close to it.

a. fault b. blunder c. defect d. error.

Synonyms for robbers and thieves.

1. The _____ attacked the owner of the house and disappeared with the expensive painting.

a. thieves b. robbers c. stealers d. lifters

2. Two masked _____ got out of the black car, rushed into the bank pointing their guns and carried away more than $ 50 000.

a. burglars b. thieves c. robbers d. stealers

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Robert was attacked by _____ in the dark street, and they took his wallet.

a. thieves b. pickpockets c. burglars d. bandits.

4. A _____ had broken the back door and stolen my golden necklace.

a. bandit b. criminal c. robber d. burglar.

5. The ship was attacked by _____ near a deserted island.

a. thieves b. gangsters c. robbers d. pirates.

6. Look! The attic window is broken; the _____ probably got inside this way.

a. bandit b. thief c. criminal d. burglar.

7. I think this woman is a _____ . I saw her put the souvenir into her bag without paying for it.

a. thief b. shoplifter c. burglar d. robber.

8. The _____ stopped the car, pointed the gun at the driver and took all his money and documents.

a. thieves b. burglars c. pirates d. bandits

9. There is a ____ in the office. Small things from my desk disappear very often.

a. robber b. criminal c. gangster d. thief.

10. A _____ took Jane's suitcase while he was sleeping in the train.

a. thief b. burglar c. robber d. bandit.

Synonyms for mistake and blunder.

1 There must be some _____; I think we have come to the wrong house.

a.slip b. fault c. mistake d. miscue.

2. The train crash was due to a _____ of the engine-driver, and many people died because of his carelessness.

a. inaccuracy b. blunder c. misunderstanding d. slip.

3. You shouldn't worry about this; it was only a _____ of the tongue and no one really noticed.

a. slip b. mistake c. misunderstanding d. blunder.

4. I am telling you from personal experience - don't go there on holiday. It will be a(n) _____!

a. error b. misunderstanding c. mistake d. blunder.

5. All the information was lost because of an _____ in the computers.

a. inaccuracy b. incorrectness c. error d. inexactness.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. He paid a lot of money for the high quality machinery, but lot of technical _____ started to appear in the long run.

a. blunders b. slips c. errors d. gaffes.

7. It is the first time Jason has written a love letter, so no wonder he made a few _____ of the pen out of excitement.

a. errors b. slips c. mistakes d. blunders.

8. Julia married a wealthy old man when she was only eighteen because all she wanted was to be rich. Years later she realized it was a big _____ .

a. inaccuracy b. mistake c. blunder d. error.

9. At the beginning of our marriage we had some _____, but little by little we smoothed them away.

a. faults b. gaffes c. mistakes d. misunderstandings

10. What he did was inappropriate to his social status; as the president of the country, he didn't realize what a(n) _____ he had made.

a. misunderstanding b. error c. mistake d. gaffe.

Synonyms for threat and danger.

1.The operation on his heart was successful, and the patient is now out of _____ a.danger b. crisis b. threat d. peril.

2.This was Brian's first voyage as a sailor, and he was not sure if he was ready to face the _____ of the ocean.

a. perils b. insecurities c. adventures d. crisis.

3. Since you live in a region of tornadoes and hurricanes, think about insuring your property against all _____ .

a. risks b. uncertainties c. dangers d. threats

4. Going into the jungle all alone at night seems like a real _____ to me.

a. chance b. harm c. threats adventure.

5. The football fan stopped throwing stones because of the policeman's _____ to arrest him.

a. danger b. threat c. peril d. risk

6. I hope you realize that as a climber you will be exposed to the severe _____ of the mountain.

a. harms b. adventures c. injuries d. perils.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. Your life is in constant _____ if you always drive as fast as this.

a. danger b. insecurity c. crisis d. adventure.

8. This military operation is a _____ to national security.

a. threat b. harm c. chance d. peril.

9. A lot of countries from the third world live under the constant _____ of famine.

a. threat b. peril c. harm d. venture.

10. These are the usual _____ of the desert – scorpions, snakes, heat, lack of water, etc.

a. uncertainties b. harms c. crises d. risks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS