

It's George's party. Read what he says to his friends and to his mum. Circle the correct answer.

'Guys, thanks for the presents. This is the ¹ nicer / nices party in my life. The jokes and games are ² funniest / funnier than last year – well done, Harry! And the cake is great, Poppy. It is the most ³ biggest / amazing cake in the world.

As usual Emma is the winner of all the games.

She always answers the ⁴ more / most difficult questions! And Mum, thanks for everything.

You are the ⁵ better / best.'

Complete the dialogue with the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives.

Poppy: Hi, Emma. Can you help me with my French homework? You're ¹ better (good) than me. I can't do Exercise 4. It's ² _____ (difficult) than the other exercises. It's ³ _____ (long) than the other exercises too. It's got thirty questions! It's ⁴ _____ (boring) exercise in this book!

Emma: Don't worry. Let's see. That's funny ...

Poppy: What?

Emma: Well, I don't know these words! You are looking at page 59. Our homework is on page 29.

Poppy: Good! I'm not ⁵ _____ (bad) student in our French class!
