

The Book Caretaker

Fill in the gaps with the words below.

reading

donate

spill

house

amazing

public

collection

decade

Hernando Guanlao is a man in the Philippines who decided to share his love for 1) and books with the people in his country. So Hernando turned his 2) into a(n) 3) library. But this library is not like any other. Passers-by can just walk in, pick up a book and take it home. Hernando's 4) was about one hundred books but now it is around two to three thousand. What is more 5) is that people 6) their own books to his library. He receives donations every day! Hernando introduced his 'Reading Club' more than a(n) 7) ago to honour his parents who had died. Now, he has so many books that they 8) out in the streets!

What impressed you most about Hernando Guanlao's story?