

GRAMMAR

A Unscramble the sentences.

1. dyed / your / ever / you / have / hair _____
2. never / ears / pierced / gotten / he's / his _____
3. ever / haven't / I / been / nail salon / a. / to _____
4. have / glasses / new / bought / yet / you _____
5. just / washed / hair / my / I've _____
6. beards / they've / their / shaved / just _____
7. I've / teeth / gotten / never / whitened / my _____
8. he / that / already / color / has / tried _____

B It's 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Read Diane's schedule and write sentences with already, just, still, and yet.

This week

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday
Call Francisco	✓ Go to the bank	✓ Mom's birthday—call her!
✓ Buy present for Mom's birthday	✓ Get files from Sam	✓ 12:00 Lunch with Carla
	Finish writing report	Answer emails
		3:00 Dentist appointment

Example: get files from Sam She's already gotten files from Sam.

1. go to dentist appointment _____
2. buy present _____
3. finish report _____
4. call Francisco _____
5. go to bank _____
6. have lunch with Carla _____

C Complete the sentences with still, yet, just, ever, never, or already. Use each word once.

1. In this class, we've learned several useful things _____.
2. Joe's boss is upset because he _____ hasn't finished writing the report.
3. I've _____ finished packing. Now I'm going to call a taxi.
4. Have you started cooking dinner _____? It's almost 7:00 and I'm hungry.
5. I don't think that we've _____ met. I'm Rose.
6. The email you sent _____ arrived. Are you sure you had the right address?