People divide hobbies into four big group: doing things, making things, collecting things, and learning things. Gardening belongs to the most popular group – doing things.

Gardening is one of the oldest outdoor activities. It has something for everyone, even for children. Gardening teaches children about flowers, fruits, and vegetables. They can also learn about insects and bugs. When gardening, chidren learn to be patient and take on responsibility. They learn to wait for the plants to grow to maturity. And if they don't water their plants, their plants will die. This teaches them valuable lessons about responsibility.
