Exercise 10

FUTURE TIME CLAUSES (WILL & BE GOING TO)

Did You Know?

In future sentences with two clauses, both will and be going to are correct in the independent clause. Will is formal and be going to is casual. Try using both forms in this exercise.

Did You Remember?

You must use the simple future tense in the independent clause and the simple present tense in a dependent clause. Dependent clauses begin with words such as when, before, after, as soon as, and until.

Did You Remember?

If a sentence begins with a dependent clause, it must be followed by a comma.

Complete the following sentences with the correct future form of the verb provided. Underline the dependent clause in each sentence.

Ex. She _____*will eat*_____ (eat) before she _____*leaves*_____ (leave) for work.

1. I'm going to eat lunch at 12:30. After I _____ (eat) lunch, I _____ (take) a nap.
2. As soon as it _____ (stop) raining, I _____ (walk) to the store.
3. I _____ (lend) you this book as soon as I _____ (finish) it.
4. He _____ (finish) this letter before he _____ (buy) stamps.
5. When the class _____ (be) over, Marilyn _____ (go) shopping.
6. They _____ (visit) many museums when they _____ (go) to Europe.
