LISTENING

4  14 Listen to a couple on holiday asking for directions. Answer the questions.

- 1 Where are they trying to get to?
- 2 What problems do they have in each conversation?
- 3 How do they travel?
- 4 Do they get to where they want to go in the end?

DEVELOPING CONVERSATIONS

Giving directions

Certain phrases are commonly used when people give directions. Keep a record of any new phrases you learn. Notice the prepositions used in each.

Go down this road.

Take the second road on the right.

You need to go over the road.

Go past a monument.

It's on the left.

 14 Choose the correct option. Then listen again and check your answers.

- 1 Do you know the road / way to the museum from here?
- 2 It's / Is better to get a bus.
- 3 It's directly opposite of / opposite the town hall.
- 4 Go down this road. Take / Turn the second road on the right.
- 5 What bus he said / did he say we need?
- 6 Is this the correct / right bus stop for the museum?
- 7 Is it near to / near here?
- 8 You got off / went off at the wrong stop.
- 9 Just keep going / go. It's maybe half a mile.
- 10 You can't miss / lose it.
